Trolls

Well, I hope this doesn't turn into a "What I read in the NYTimes" blog, but this article on trolls was interesting: <http://www.nytimes.com/2008/08/03/magazine/03trolls-t.html>. When I have students work online, inevitably we run into troll-like characters. Recently, a group working on Wikitravel ran into a fellow wikitraveler that, while maybe not a troll, gave students insight into many of the characteristics and activities mentioned in the article.
